TRE CADETSET INVESTED ATTOR.

The evidence before the Cadesahip Committee to-day entirely relieved Gen. Mangrea, of Ohio, from the charge of selling his appointment to West Foint. The father of the cades testified that when he was introduced to Mungra he was a Hennibilean and is now, but was represented by his Democratic friends to be a Democrat; and that without any consideration being mentioned, or promised directly or indirectly to Gen. Mangra, the latter subsequently appointed his see a cadel. For services rendered in precenting the nomination, the witness paid three hundred dollars to two other parties, without the knowledge of Mangra, who, the witness added, was in-

THE HOUSE BRINKING Committee to-day agreed to name the legal-tender notes in the fifty-million hill, which they are obliged to report to the House mader instructions.

TREASURES.

There is no longer any doubt of the attempt to reconstruct a state already faily represented in Congress. Mesers, Arnell and Maynard, of the Tennesce delegation in the House, appeared before the Reconstruction Committee to-day and substantially proposed that Congress should upset the present State government on the ground that it had been placed in power is August that by a signatic system of franch that men were in office who were distructured by the Fourteenth suncediment, and that there was but little protection for life or property under the speach state of affairs. They charged further, that the registration for the last election was Hiegal; that persons voted who were not qualified, and that the State charged further, that the registration for the last election was flegal; that persons voted who were not qualified, and that the State Government did not constitutionally hold its

THE DISTRICTION SPIRITE.

THE FIRANCE Committee of the Senate considered this morning the question of granting further time for the withdrawal of distilled spirits now in bond in distillery ware-houses. The case was argued by Win Brown, of Kentneky, in behalf of the distillers of Kentneky, and Pumayivania.

The committee examined Deputy Commissioner of internal Revenue Given, who is of opinion that the distillers whould have at least two years time one bond without interest. The representatives of the distillers would prefer we years with interest at the rate which Congress seems of a local to preservice. The committee, to-morrow, will hear Commissioner Delano.

The gaileri-s, and, indeed, every access to the board, were throused by a crowd of eager spec-tators, who watched the changes on the dial, each fractional decline being greated with with should and cheers. Inside the room all was con-rusion, and the scene beggarred description, and has coarcely been equaled, either on the memora-ble Friday or during the present bear movement. The decline in the price of gold to 110% demon-alized the market for foreien exchange, cotton, wheat, pork, and trade generally, and considence was paralyzed by the rapid decline in the price of gold. The future is regarded with distrust by trokers and money-lenders.

Rev. W. M. Gunningham, D. D., President of Ogiethorpe College, died at Lagrange, scorge, or Thursday hast, or passamoule, to had delivered an address in Atlanta only a we days before upon the studyet of the re-oval of the college to that city.

In Dversburg, on Friday last, Willie Shaw, about by years old, shot his little sister Leita, aged 3 years, in the forchead with a Derringer-lated, while rouping and playing in the gunnuth shop of their father, sheediff E. S. Shaw, turing his absence. The child was not instantly killed, but it will be a miracle if it re-were found and taken from the train, which was then allowed to proceed.

The Radical recognition for Temporal Will hardly surprise myself.

If one tendency of Redicalism has become more distinct than another it is its destructive tendency—which, added to its accounting and the growly present of the gardle and the gardle and the growly present of the gardle and the growly present of the gardle and the gardle predict.

Assuredly the Tennessee Radicals do not care. Begot by that anarchy which generates "all monstrous, all prodigious things," these vile and hungry harplesthings," these vile and hungry harpies fluttering in the filthy slime which they themselves created, and into which they were most justly cast, are waiting to be litted by the hand of Congress into places which can only be soiled by their presence.

To what end can a thoughtful or honest Republican sanction such an ill-timed, wanton and dangerous expedient? The law-makers of Tennessee could not be more temperate than they have been; nor the people more law-abiding and peaceful. If interference is tolerated here, how long will Kennucky be exempt, and after Kentucky the casempt, and after Kentucky other States which may chance to tucky other States which may chance to lie under the displeasure of the dominant ture of Kentucky.

He has delivered as address in Atlanta only a moral of the college to that city and college to that city and college to that city and college to the college to the depth or weary lengths of mire which might have been avoided; now hailed over gaping ruts and fallen trees, and rudely jostied by projecting ledges of rock, all murderously arranged under the systematic scheme of persecution which prevalled, and which very naturally extended the halfell impress to the imagination and the halfell impress to the imagination and atic scheme of persecution which prevailed, and which very naturally extended its baleful impress to the imagination, and broke the sleep and tortured the dreams of the people. Indeed, figures of speech can in no wise intensity the picture. It was a horrid reality. Business was interrupted. Travel was threatened. Repose was menaced. Pleasure was overcast. The growth of the young was stinted. The peace of the old was disturbed. The very sources of domestic life—school-going and churchgoing, the fireside and root-tree—were poisoned, and nature and laws and customs were turned upside dows at the bidding of a clique of abandoned speculators acting through professional criminals and supported by Congress.

Is it not just possible that, with all of this building, executing and raising, the poor gentieras will only put himself up a house, or make a home? ter's work. It is proposed to "provide for the publication of such documents only as are found to be of historical importance and value." It is possible that Peter feared as much, and as he was afraid to publish all of the records for fear they might contain uncomfortable facts for the powers that be, he wisely codelinded that he would "none of it." Under the pretense of publishing only what is "historically valuable" there is no doubt but that a great deal which is of importance to the truth of history will never see the light. The records will be carefully sxable to the truth of history will never see the light. The records will be carefully sxable to the truth of history will never see the light. The records will be carefully sxable to the world will not shed luster upon the conquerors, and nothing will probably be published which is calculated to show that the "rebels" fought against odds, achieved any victories, or in any way exhibited any soldisrahip. Depend upon it the records will be well "doctored" before they are given to the world. All that they contain which is favorable to the South will have to be passed through a loyal filterer before it will be considered wholesome to loral minds.

The Last "Basics Notice."

The magic Hist of the Universe, which furnishes so much exits axis grease to the machinery of the rest of creation, some times gets terribly "done," even at the hands of some of its most notice and the literary-friction line. The latest "notion" of this sort is due to the uniterpies and tireless assiduity of those clevar purveyors Messrs. Fields, Quood & Oo., the publishers of much that is good in general and of Every Saturday in particular. The number of this capital periodical for January 29 had an article of deep interest at the present moment, being a succinct and well-written "brief biography" of Ismail Facha, the present Vicercy of Egypt. This article was translated expressly for Every Saturday from a well-known German periodical, the Garienhaube, for it is the special province of the Boston Eelectic not to produce aught of home manufacture, but to draw its pure streams of information and cutertainment solely from European foun-pin-head. Here comes the cream of the Joks. The translation of "Ismail Facha" from the German of the Garienhaube was well done; so extremely well done in fact as to be at once recognizable as an article of the same name that appoined in Harper's Monthly some three or four mon the slove. The original was written for Harper's, at the spenal request of its editor, by Hon. Edwa De Leon, so long U. S. consul-general at the courts of successive Vicerory whose lives he took serious to the American biographer of the Egyptian Prances, that his articles of the Egyptian Prances, that his articles of the results for the magnature. navin De Leon, so long U. already advised you of the changes which the bill proposes to make.

A bill has been passed by the House of Representatives repealing the statute requiring traveling agents from Northern elites—or, to state it more correctly, from the clitics of other States—to pay a license in any county of Kentucky for goods sold by sample. The propristy of repealing the license law in this case, it attikes your correspondent, is at least questionable. The taxes which the people of Kentucky are compelled to submit to are already very onerous, and the indications are adventigated to the complete of the complete of

THE SENATOR FROM SEPPERSON.

The people of Jedisson county have reason to congraniate themselves on the efficiency and subtrainess of their Senator, Hon. K. D. Standstort. I have heretofore more than once taken occasion to speak of Dr. Standstord's merits, and it sifters me pissaure once more to testily to bis influence and usefulness. No member of the Senate or of the Legislature can accomplish more for any cause he is interested in than he. A genial companion, a gualisman in the best sod truest sense of the term and a man or brains, of straightforward honesty and extraordinary tact, Standsford is at once a remarkable man, and a credit to his constituents. And, to cap the climar, each withal is the Jediscon county Senator's freedom from septiasm that I very much question whether he will not be rather annoyed than gratified by thus brief notice of his excellence as a gentieman and faithfulness and efficiency as a legislator.

The refusal of the Governor to hecapt Gol-ledgy's resignation, notwithstanding the fact that the National Legislature insists upon treating that gentleman as an ex-member, myets with the hearty approbation of almost everybody here. A resolution to that effect has, I know, been prepared, but for some reason has not been presented thus far. No one who knows -olladay believes that he has been guilty of the baseness of actually taking a bribe for his appointment to a endet-hip, but the general opision is that he has done hoth himself and the State he in part repre-sented gross lipistics by seeming to shirk at
